PAINT-A-POT

In observance of Mother's Day, Grange Co-op held the annual Paint-A-Pot event for children in our counties. For this activity, local kids painted terracotta pots and planted a flower to give as a gift to their mothers, grandmothers, or any loved one they celebrated. Thank you to everyone who participated, we always enjoy the smiling faces, enthusiastic participation, and youthful energy this event brings to our stores.

TEHAMA AUCTION

To kick off fair season, Grange Co-op attended the Tehama District Fair in Northern California. This was Grange Co-op's first time attending the Tehama Fair and we purchased three livestock projects. One lamb from Dayvany Montoya, one steer from Jessie Wilson, and one goat from Camren Valentine. Congratulations to all the exhibitors that competed at the fair this year and thank you for welcoming us!

GRANGE CO-OP AWARDS LOCAL STUDENTS WITH $14,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

2022-23 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Grange Co-op has awarded nine scholarships, totaling $14,000 to high school seniors in Southern Oregon and Northern California for the 2022-2023 academic year. Eight recipients have each received $1,500 to be used towards higher level education. One top recipient received a $2,000 scholarship. Since 2012, Grange Co-op has awarded scholarships totaling over $132,000!

"Grange Co-op is excited to announce our 2022-2023 top scholarship recipient, Lillian Young, as well as our other eight recipients," states Jason Wall, Grange Co-op Marketing Manager. "It was very difficult to narrow down to the top nine. It was clear that the students chosen were the top of their class and have bright futures ahead of them. We are proud to help support their future with our GrangeGives scholarship."

Grange Co-op is proud to announce eight individuals as recipients of $1,500 scholarships: Sydney Moore of Grants Pass, OR., Hailey Cox of Grants Pass,

OR., Kinsey Hullman of Klamath Falls, OR., TJ Rohwer of Chico, CA., Jack Mornarich of Roseburg, OR., Hannah Taylor of Live Oak, CA., Masie Skelton of Red Bluff, CA., and Marissa Magaña of Sutherlin, OR. Grange Co-op is pleased to announce the top scholarship award recipient, Lillian Young of Central Point, OR a $2,000 scholarship.

Congratulations to all the recipients. We wish everyone a successful and bright future as they pursue higher education and a career path upon graduation.

PLANTING DAY

Saturday, April 16th, Grange Co-op, along with the Rogue Gardener Stan Mapolski, hosted the annual Planting Day event. Customers and community members came together at all seven retail locations to plant flowers in various sizes of flowerpots right before Easter. This year Grange Co-op in conjunction with local FFA chapters, Rogue Gardeners and Kellogg G&B Representatives helped with the event.
